If the good women who have it to sell, will bring some butter to town they will receive not only the thanks of a butter-hungry people, but a good price for it. That article was never so scarce at this season.

GARRARD democracy is in good shape and the nomination of Gov. Beckham suits them all right. Mr. Yerkes will get no democrats and if he polls his full party strength in that county he will do well. Garrard county democrats are made of the right kind of stuff.

A WEEK from tomorrow the Hustonville fair will begin. The prospects for a successful meeting are very flattering while from a social standpoint the belles and beaux will make it the most enjoyable fair ever held in the West End. Go and tell your friends to do likewise.

FORTY dollars to the best double team, $30 to the best roadster mare or gelding, $150 to the best saddle stallion, mare or gelding, $50 to the best roadster mare or gelding, $150 to the best roadster stallion, mare or gelding are some of the liberal premiums offered at the Hustonville fair next week.

AN I. J. reporter saw Mr. Ben V. Smith, of Somerset, at Lexington the other day and speaking of his nomination for Congress, he said: "I intend to make an active canvass and work and speak in every county of my district. I don't expect to win, but I promise you I will make Mr. Boreling hump himself or lose a thousand or so of the republican majority."

LOST HIS MIND.—Howard Johnson, the 16 year old son of Wm. Johnson, of the Milledgeville section, was adjudged a lunatic in Judge Bailey's court yesterday. He was a very bright boy and until a week ago showed no signs of insanity. He began then to act queerly and since became violent. He was taken to Lakeland yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Pearson Miller, who was accompanied thither by the boy's father.

THE horse that Mr. J. M. Pettus and Miss Callie Horton were driving Saturday afternoon became unmanageable while coming down Lancaster street and ran at breakneck speed through it, crossing the foot bridge at the creek and smashing its head through the side of the engine house and falling.

Strange to say the buggy was not overturned and the occupants were not hurt, nor was any damage done except to the building named.

LAWLESS.—The Lexington Herald says that Mr. James R. Lawless died at St. Joseph's Hospital Sunday morning, aged 73. On Sept. 1, 1847, he was married to Miss Mary Love Joplin, of Mt. Vernon, a woman distinguished for her personal beauty and high family connection, and they lived for a long time at Crab Orchard, removing to Lexington in 1889. He was a member of the Christian church, a Mason and a veteran of the Mexican war. His wife died exactly a year before his death. One daughter, Mrs. Mary L. Scott, alone survives.

THE Colored District S. S. Convention, which met in the Baptist church here, newly painted and decorated, was attended by 84 delegates, who were well entertained by the church, which put forth every effort to that end. Miss Belle Frye, of Danville, was elected president, who made a graceful presiding officer. Mrs. N. Campbell, of Somerset, was chosen vice president. In oratory and ability to handle the Sabbath school question and in raising money for educational work the convention was the greatest in the history of the district. It was in session three days and raised $124.75.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—My two-thirds undivided interest in 65 acres of unimproved land at Crab Orchard. Purchaser can have use of all the land. Address immediately, Mrs. Ellen Hlatt, Lancaster, Ky.

LIBERAL.—Supt. Garland Singleton came in Saturday and gave us $3 for the fund to pay the expenses of Hubble, Alverson and Embry in getting clear of the U. S. court, on the charge of election intimidation.

LIBERTY FAIR.—At a meeting held at Liberty yesterday, it was decided to hold a three days' fair beginning Sept. 18 and continuing three days. F. P. Combest was selected president and A. P. Young, secretary—good selections.

DEATH.—Elder J. B. Crouch received a dispatch yesterday that his wife's mother, Mrs. Sophia Cordes, died at Mt. Clemeat, Mich., where she had gone for her health with one of her daughters, while Mrs. Crouch kept house for her. The remains will be brought to her home in Cincinnati and Mr. Crouch has gone to attend the funeral. Mrs. Cordes was a member of the Baptist church and said to be a very devout, christian woman. A husband and eight children survive her, and for them, especially Mrs. Crouch, many friends deeply sympathize.

DILLON.—Of paralysis, after a month's confinement, F. W. Dillon, familiarly known as "Doc," died at his home in Crab Orchard Friday afternoon, aged about 65. He was twice married, first to Miss Lockie Saunders, who bore him six children, one of whom Mrs. W. M. O'Bryan, is dead, the others, Mrs. James Pugh, Mrs. Wm. Burke, Miss Lockie and Frank and Oliver, surviving and the latter being in the army in the Philippines. His last wife was Mrs. Crockett Wilmore, a sister of his first. There were no children by the latter union. Mr. Dillon was in the revenue service and his friends speak of him as an unusually kind and clever man. Eld. J. G. Livingston preached the funeral discourse and a large number of friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

HON. R. C. WARREN, who was on the committee on resolutions at the Lexington convention, is strongly for amendments to the election law so as to make it beyond cavil fair and just and thinks Gov. Beckham will call an extra session of the Legislature to that end. Mr. Warren's democracy is of the most stalwart order and his record of 30 years as an uncompromising party man gives his opinions force and weight. He believes that the democracy does not desire, nor could it afford, to keep a law on the statute books which even a minority believes unfair and since the new election law has brought us nothing but a "heritage of woe," he is heartily for making it so non-partisan, fair and just that no man who calls himself a democrat can object to it and no republican will be able to use it to obscure the real issues of the campaign, which are law and order against lawlessness and usurpation and self preservation against assassination.

NEGRO KILLED.—Arthur Hocker shot George Garnett, another Negro, as he was going from the Deep Well Woods picnic Saturday night, from the effects of which he died Sunday. He was struck five times, twice in the arm, twice in his body, one ball going into his kidneys and a finger was shot off. It seems that Hocker took a girl to the picnic of whom Garnett was also enamored. After it was over he attempted to take her home, when Hocker objected. The girl preferred to go with Hocker and that angered Garnett, who jerked her hat off and tore it to pieces. Hocker claims that he struck at him and then it was that he began to fire. As his victim walked off afterwards, he did not think he had hit him, and so informed Judge Bailey when he came to town and delivered himself up. The judge told him to come in again yesterday morning and bright and early he was on hand. A warrant charging him with murder was issued and he was lodged in jail to await examination Thursday next.

LANCASTER COURT.—Only about 60 cattle were on the market yesterday and but few of them were sold. A few steers sold at close to 5c; several heifers at 3c to 4c and some butcher cattle at 3c to 3c. A few mules changed hands at $75 to $110, but no horses were offered. The crowd was small.

MATRIMONIAL.

Robert Bowling, aged 80, was married at South Bend, Ind., to Miss Susie Lathrop, aged 25.

Thomas Gillis and Miss Stella Sutton, of Williamsburg, were married on a raft in the Cumberland.

Henry Orman, son of Charles Orman, of Boyle, secured marriage license yesterday to marry Miss Mary Roberts the pretty daughter of Mr. Evan Lyon, of the Turnersville section. The wedding will occur tomorrow.

When that Garrard county man applied for marriage license here some weeks ago and got hustled off to jail for drunkenness instead of getting married, evidently hoodooed the whole matrimonial business, for not a whispering intimation of a desire to get married has been heard around the court-house since. In fact, the last license for white people was issued June 15th.—Winchester Democrat.
